

Mark Thorley and Jim Stephenson of Thorley Stephenson are happy to act for sex workers in Scotland on family, child or criminal cases. Mark Thorley was a long-serving member of the SCOT-PEP Board.

They are an Edinburgh-based firm, so if you are dependent on legal aid and live or are being charged outside of the central belt, it may not be viable for them to represent you. In these circumstances, they will be able to put you in touch with "sex worker friendly" solicitors in your area.
